Jan Mignone began the meeting with announcements.

The Red Oak Victory Ship will have a pancake breakfast on April 9.

Rosie the Riveter Rally is August 12. Save the Date.

March 17th was the Wendell Park event that built a play structure. It was organized by KaBoom and paid for by Target. It was very successful and many community and city folks participated. (see the Community Rebuilds Wendell Park Page).

Michelle Milam of the Crime Prevention section of the Richmond Police Department gave a very informative talk and answered many questions. She emphasized the need to call in anything suspicious and that influences how services are assigned among other actions. The Police Department is beginning to work with local businesses on strategies to decrease crime. Neighborhood watch and block captains were discussed. May 17th a training for developing neighborhood watch will be held at the monthly Crime Prevention meeting. Car and house theft prevention was addressed.

Beat Officer Dandridge gave an update on crime in Beat 7 where the N&E is. The officer is new to our Beat but has much experience and works 3pm-1am shift. The decrease of prostitution on 23rd St. was discussed.

Jan Mignone gave the Richmond Neighborhood City Council meeting report. The May 27th Fund Raiser Run for Richmond Trees was announced. Our 26th Annual Picnic will be Sept. 9.
